It's called Lawlab and here's why you should use it for your next conveyance.

Smart: Track your conveyance online, be informed 24/7

What better way to conduct your conveyancing than online - It simply doesn't get any smarter than this. Choose communication via the method you prefer: phone, fax, email or sms.

Personal: Talk to your own client manager when it suits you

Lawlab will assign you your own client manager to look after your conveyance and to ensure that you remain in close contact with their friendly trained staff throughout the whole process. Personal service from real people - that's their commitment to you.

Hassle free: streamlined for your convenience with NO meetings

No waiting for appointments, no travel and no face to face meetings.

Efficient: It helps us manage your loan better

Lawlab offers a smart collaborative approach to conveyancing. That includes us at Mortgage Force NSW who can track and manage your conveyance online. You wouldn't believe what a difference this makes!

Green: Reduce the environmental footprint of our service

You can choose the "green" option which means all contracts and paperwork and communication is handled electronically – that means you can print out only what is necessary and not get lumbered with reams of unwanted paper.

Better value: All inclusive fixed legal fee with no hidden extras

With lawlab's all-inclusive fixed legal fee you know upfront how much it's going to cost and there are no hidden extras. Let their efficiency and drive translate to lower costs for you without compromising quality.

Immediate: They're ready when you are

We understand that you're busy, so lawlab staff is available 8.00am to 6.00pm Monday to Friday to answer your questions. Their 24/7 online system allows you to check your transaction and even leave messages whenever you have time.
